Dear Parents:-

Arrived here Saturday night
O.K. and everything is O.K.

About going to France
nobody knows anything about it but listen.

Sunday they were to take 300 men from this regiment that is the pick of the regiment and they are going to France to take care of the ammunition trains and I was picked and believe me I was glad it was the happiest day I ever knew, but, they picked too many and some had to drop out and as luck would have it I was told to drop out, gee I was mad.

They are breaking up the regiment and we don't know where we will be soon.

We are still dulling and we all wish we could go to France.

Answer soon I remain your loving son.

Corp. Daniel Dwyer.
