Camp Bartlett. Sept 23 1917

Dear Parents:-

Excuse me for not writing earlier we are busy here packing stuff and receiving equipment.

We expect to move sometime this week but we don't know where we will go, we think Long Island.

Some of the heavy baggage is going to-morrow and then we will go.

How's things in New York now, is everybody working. I think we leave Tuesday or Wednesday, I'll probably see you this week.

Well as I haven't much time now I'll close with love.

Cory D. Dougan.

I had some pictures taken and if I don't get them by Tuesday they will send them to you in New York.
