Somewhere in France

Dear Folks,

Have just arrived in our training camp, it is in a small French village.

The people use us like they would their own sons.

I am in the best of health and certainly do enjoy this life. I have been in several rest camps but now I am in a training camp.

I have seen a big part of France and have been in a few large cities but I wish I was in the U. S. A.

write them a letter also.

Well hoping to hear from you soon & remain
your loving son.

Dan.

You have my address.

Say please send me
a New York paper,
not the Journal but some other one.

You might send some cigarettes also if you can.
I smoke cartels we couldn't get them here.
